

2010-2011
CCSD 89 SCHOOL BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS

ARBOR VIEW SCHOOL

School Business Partnership	Collaborative Initiatives
Glen Crest Middle School	Book buddies between the sixth grade challenge students and the entire fifth grade.
Central DuPage Hospital	Donated Bike Helmets for all 1 st graders
Chicago Office Technology Group	Free professional development and material for classrooms.
Junior Achievement	Grades 1-5 enrichment activities and used a student from Arbor View to present at their annual Chicago Business Hall of Fame dinner. Student later received a $5000 college bond from the CEO of Molex Industries.
Glen Ellyn Food Bank	Restocked the food bank twice during the year.
Valley View Housing Association	Partnered on different activities for Santa Secret Shop.
Theodore Utchen (The Dictionary Man)	Purchased dictionaries to 3 rd grade classes and 30 minute tutorial on dictionary usage to each class.
DuPage Sheriff Department	Provides "Too Good for Drugs" Grade 5
US Again	AV school and community donate clothes, shoes, and sheets in return for monetary donations throughout the year.
Ronald McDonald House Charities	A V was recognized in their "Thanks a Million Club" for donating over one million pop tabs to the RML of Loyola.

BRIAR GLEN SCHOOL

School Business Partnerships	Collaborative Initiatives
Jewel/Osco on Roosevelt Road	Partnered through out the year. Briar Glen's Choir sang at Jewel during the holidays. Jewel has made numerous donations through out the year to help with PBIS and our School Improvement/ATP groups.
Brentwood Apartments	Briar Glen Teachers and Glenbard South students provide tutoring after school hours for students who are residents of or live near the Brentwood Apartments.
Costco	Donation towards breakfast for students, parents and staff on International Walk to School Day in the Fall and Spring each year.
Dr. Murphy's Dental Office	Provides 5 th graders with a tour of dental office, oral Hygiene lessons. Buys lunch for all the kids and pays for the buses
Glen Ellyn Food Pantry	Run an annual food drive for the pantry. Briar Glen is one of the largest contributors to the Pantry

2010-2011
CCSD 89 SCHOOL BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS

DuPage Sheriff's Department	Too Good For Dugs Program – Gr. 6
College of DuPage	4 th Grade Eco-partnership
Junior Achievement	Local businesses come in and teach lessons
Theodore Utchen (The Dictionary Man)	Purchased dictionaries to 3 rd grade classes and 30 minute tutorial on dictionary usage to each class.
PARK VIEW SCHOOL
School Business Partnership	Collaborative Initiatives
Central DuPage Hospital	Providing an assembly and bike helmets to all first grade students
Family Tree Resale	Part of the community outreach program providing vouchers to PV when families donate items to the store
Concordia University	Tutoring program in the fall semester for reading candidates (Will continue Fall 10)
Junior Achievement	Providing lessons for grades K-4
Glen Ellyn Police Department	Too Good For Drugs in 5 th grade Fingerprinting volunteers for OE
Willowbrook	Take the left over fruit from lunches to feed the animals at the facility
Glenbard South High School , Business Education Department	Internships for students who want to go into Education
Glen Ellyn Food Pantry	We donate food throughout the year on hot lunch days
Glen Ellyn Community Bank	Provided funds for the at-risk kindergarten to make blankets for Christmas
Sandy and Bill Pihos	Provide book and volunteer hours for Michael's Place
Glen Ellyn Public Library	Worked with challenge students on gardening unit
College of DuPage	Eco kids partnership
Scarce	Donations from school/eco kids
Ronald McDonald House	Donations from school/eco kids
Salvation Army	Donated batteries for recycling
AVEDA	Donated empty juice boxes
Theodore Utchen (The Dictionary Man)	Purchased dictionaries to 3 rd grade classes and 30 minute tutorial on dictionary usage to each class.
People's Resource Center in D41	Homeless Parent Meetings

2010-2011
CCSD 89 SCHOOL BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS

WESTFIELD
School Business Partnerships	Collaborative Initiatives
Junior Achievement	Provides weekly lessons in all classrooms K-5. These begin after spring break and continue through May.
Sheriff's Department	Provides "Too Good for Drugs" program for 5 th grade. This is a 10-week program beginning in March.
Willowbrook Wildlife Preserve	3 rd Grade students (Helping Hands Club) collect leftover fruit from the lunchroom that is then donated..
Various Restaurants	PTC arranges "Restaurant Nights". Dates are identified and families are encouraged to eat there. Percentage of the proceeds is donated to Westfield.
Family Tree Resale	Gently used clothing is collected and donated. In return, we are give $20 coupons for families in need to use at the shop. (organized by PTC and Kristin Kazonovitz Social Worker)
Butterfield Park District	Annual end of year event for Westfield 4 th and 5 th grades. Tennis, Volleyball and soccer activities followed by lunch and swimming in the afternoon.
Theodore Utchen (The Dictionary Man)	Purchased dictionaries to 3 rd grade classes and 30 minute tutorial on dictionary usage to each class.
GLEN CREST MIDDLE SCHOOL
School Business Partnerships	Collaborative Initiatives
Meadows Assisted Living Residence	Seniors reading with reading lab students
Glenbard South High School	Collaborated on giving the Explore test
Hadley Junior High School	Reading lab students participated in a reading showdown with Hadley students called "Hip Biography Smackdown"

2010-2011
CCSD 89 SCHOOL BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS

Arbor View Elementary	Sixth grade literacy students created book boxes with the input of fifth graders and then shared those boxes with the Arbor View students.
Glen Ellyn Public Library	Sponsored the “Hip Hop Biography Smackdown” between Hadley and Glen Crest.
Kiwanis International	In contact with Kiwanis to create a Builder’s Club that will partner with Glenbard South’s Key Club
Junior Achievement	Junior achievement presented concepts related to banking, business and school.
Apple Store – Naperville	Art students presented their animation projects at the Naperville store.
Feed My Starving Children - Warrenville	Basketball team went over to work on the “Feed My Starving Children” project.
Olive Garden – Pasta for Pennies Drive	Student Union and Glen Crest raised over $2,000 for the Leukemia and Lymphoma organization.
Anderson’s Book Store	Anderson’s brought in author, Sarah Mylnowski to talk with students about writing.
Technology Center of DuPage	Students set a reading goal and when met, the Center makes “Glen Crest Reads” posters.
Glen Ellyn Bank & Trust	Bank lessons on finance, banking and credit
Legat Architects, Project Leader <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Henricksen</li> <li>- Susan Rundle, PCA learn</li> <li>- American Schoolhouse Council</li> <li>- Ameritech</li> <li>- SIS-USA, Inc.</li> </ul>	“Flip This Classroom” project to provide free services, products, and training. Specifics include furniture, floor covering, lighting controls, sound enhancement, technology and professional development in learning styles.
People’s Community Church Dr. Shannon	Provides tutoring and mentoring for African American and other diverse student populations as well as transition assistance for new student enrollments. Encourages theme of respect in cultural differences.

2010-2011
CCSD 89 SCHOOL BUSINESS PARTNERSHIPS

DuPage Convalescent Center	Students helped set up a fall festival for the residents.
Maple Grove Forest Preserve	Students cleared brush from ecosystems that were being overgrown. This was also in conjunction with the Glenbard South Key Club.
Humanitarian Service Project	Students packed boxes of food and non-perishables for the needy.
Arbor View Elementary	Students ran activities for the Halloween Harvest.
Parkview Elementary	Students provided babysitting services for an evening event.
Briar Glen Elementary	Students ran activities for Candy Cane Lane.
Meadows Assisted Living Residence	Students played games with the residents, made crafts, and allowed residents to reminisce
Trick or Treat for Unicef	Students collected money for Unicef during Halloween.
Glenbard South High School	Mentoring efforts between the schools for African American and Hispanic students as well as students in reading lab.
Glenbard South High School	Students created bookmarks for Glenbard Gives Books.