David Bruno Named New Arbor View Elementary School Principal in District 89 Replaces Kevin Diehl, who will Retire on June 30

GLEN ELLYN-District 89 Board of Education members voted unanimously January 26 to hire David Bruno as the new principal for Glen Ellyn's Arbor View Elementary School.

Bruno is currently employed with District 89 as the Dean of Students for Glen Crest Middle School, and prior to becoming that school's Dean of Students, Bruno worked as a special education teacher at Glen Crest.

"David will offer energetic leadership, a collaborative spirit, and will certainly place a high priority on what is best for students each day at Arbor View," said Superintendent Dr. John S. Perdue.

Bruno earned a Bachelors Degree in Special Education and a Masters Degree in Educational Leadership from Lewis University in Romeoville, IL, and said he looks forward to bringing those skills to Arbor View, which houses District 89's integrated preschool program and K-5 classrooms.

"I'm very excited about taking on the new challenge of being a principal," said Bruno. "I hope to preserve the school's past while building a bright future for Arbor View."

Bruno will replace outgoing Arbor View Principal Kevin Diehl, who will retire on June 30. Diehl has served as Arbor View Elementary School's principal since 1987 and prior to becoming the building's principal he served as a principal in Glendale Heights.

"Kevin is completing a very successful career as an educator and school administrator," said Perdue. "We wish him the very best as he finishes his final months at Arbor View."
