FAQ's

I have Access DuPage. Can I use the DuPage
Dispensary of Hope?

Using our new free pharmacy program is easy for AD members; you automatically qualify! Just bring your Access DuPage card with you to the pharmacy.

How much medication can I receive per visit?

The DuPage Dispensary of Hope can provide up to 90 days of medication per visit, with a valid prescription.

What if only some of my medications are available for free at the DuPage Dispensary of Hope Pharmacy?

DuPage Care Center's Outpatient Pharmacy is a full service pharmacy. This means that in addition to the free medications available through DuPage Dispensary of Hope, other medicine is also available for retail purchase.

How do I get my prescriptions to the DuPage
Dispensary of Hope?

1. Ask your doctor's office for a new paper prescription and bring it to DDOH.
2. Ask your doctor to send a prescription to DDOH by fax or via Surescripts.
3. Call your current pharmacy and have them transfer your prescription to DDOH.
4. Contact DDOH and tell them you'd like to have your medication transferred.
