

Today we will...

Discuss consent and its meaning.

By the end of class... you will be able to identify consent in a variety of scenarios.

Yes means Yes

What does YES mean?

What does NO mean?

Our Goal

To be able to explain consent and identify what is considered consent.

Reminder

Illinois legal age of sexual consent is 17 years old

Consent

- A clear, verbal "Yes"
- Can be withdrawn at anytime

Complete your Table

List three times people
will drink tea:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What is the clip trying to say? Explain!!

List three times people
will not drink tea:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Is this point easy to understand? Why? Explain!!

Consent Stations

You will be working your way around the classroom to each consent station.

First, you are identifying whether or not the situation is considered consent.

Then, you are discussing the questions with a partner.

ABSENCE OF NO
IS NOT CONSENT

Safe/Unsafe Touches

Safe Touches- hug (from someone you trust), high five, pat on the back, holding hands

Unsafe touches- any touch that makes you feel uncomfortable including touches that are on or near a reproductive (private) part including chest.

Safe/Unsafe Secrets

Safe Secret Examples- A family password, family health history, surprise birthday party, etc.

Unsafe Secret Examples- Someone touches/hurts you and tells you to keep it a secret, someone takes a picture of you and tells you to keep it a secret, someone is sending you inappropriate texts/pictures and tells you to keep it a secret, etc.
